ABOUT THE TOWN.

What the Freeholders Are Doing for the Charter.

SOMETHING ABOUT POLITICS.

An Informer With a Record—Political Sharps are Discussed. Other Things.

The Board of Freeholders met yesterday afternoon, General Mansfield in the chair and Messrs. Moore, Mackay, Robinson, Dunkelberger, Scott, Brown, Baldwin and Dr. Kurtz present.

The first matter considered was the changing of established street grades. Colonel Dunkelberger was of the opinion that the city should be obligated to pay the cost of all changes, and that the property owner should, if damaged, have recourse from the city and not from other property owners.

The committee to whom this section was referred recommended that it be amended so that the people benefited shall pay the damages before the work is done, a court or commission to decide as to the question of benefit or damages. The amendment of the committee was adopted.

The committee also recommended that the city pay the cost of improving all intersections of streets, and that after a street has been accepted the city keep it in repair. Adopted.

The Committee recommended that sewer construction should not cost the property owners more than $1.00 per front foot.

Dr. Kurtz offered as an amendment that every foot of property in the city be assessed $1.00 for sewerage purposes. The amendment was carried.

Col. Dunkelberger moved to reconsider Section 34, to which had been added a clause giving the power to the Council to cause railroads to erect viaducts at street crossings. He desired the word viaducts stricken out and the section left as it was in the defeated charter.

Dr. Kurtz suggested that automatic signals be prohibited, for the reason that they were not of any account.

Col. Moore thought they should be permitted if necessary and so moved, but his motion was lost.

Col. Dunkelberger was allowed to explain why he had moved to cut the Mayor's salary down. He had been under the impression that the Mayor was not required to pay his clerk's salary. Upon ascertaining that he was, he moved that the office of Mayor's clerk be created, that official to be appointed by the Mayor. Carried.

Mr. Robinson moved that a committee of five be appointed to revise the charter. Carried.

The chair then appointed Messrs. Robinson, Brown, Mackay, Moore and Dr. Kurtz.

The matter of building viaducts over railroad tracks was brought up again. Col. Dunkelberger moved that the streets where viaducts are needed should be named now. Lost.

Mayor Workman moved that the City Clerk be appointed by the Council instead of elected by the people. Lost.

The sections of the charter relating to the indebtedness of the city, the collection of assessments by suits and prosecutions for violation of the ordinances were read and adopted.

This finished all the work before the Freeholders until the Committee on "Claims and Demands" shall report, and the meeting adjourned.

THE RELIANCE CLUB.

An Enthusiastic Meeting—Important Meeting.

The Reliance Democratic Club met last night in Judge Hutton's courtroom with its President, Mr. W. L. Price, in the chair, and Mr. Thomas Rutledge acting as secretary. The by-laws and constitution were read and adopted, after which a number of new members were enrolled. The report of the Executive Committee was handed in, and a communication read from the Fourth Ward Club inviting the members of the Reliance Club to meet them on Monday night, and then proceed together to call on the Democratic Club on Boyle Heights. This proposition was adopted unanimously. It was decided to appoint a committee to obtain speakers for the weekly meetings and also to make arrangements with the County Committee for the use of the Grand Stand on Franklin street occasionaly for rallying purposes and the following gentlemen were named by the Chair: B. A. Taney, W. L. Price and J. R. King. A motion was adopted to send to New York for new and elaborate campaign hats that have lately been issued their, after which speeches were in order, and after an hour or so the meeting adjourned to meet again at Judge Taney's court-room in the Temple block on Monday evening at 7 P. M. sharp so as to visit the Fourth Ward club as arranged. The next regular meeting will take place on Friday evening in Judge Hutton's court-room at 7:30 P. M.

A Malicious Informer.

There is a saloon on the corner of Arcadia and Sanchez streets which has stood there time out of mind. The HERALD is not personally acquainted with the place, and knows nothing regarding the way it is kept. The proprietor is a Frenchman named Lacour; and there is now pending before the Police Commission a charge against the place, which, it is alleged, is kept in a dirty and disgusting condition. The complainant alleges that the place should be closed up. The HERALD is informed and the information comes from an entirely reliable source, that the place is well managed. The further information is to the effect that the complainant is under the influence of malice. The allegation is that he was thrown out of the saloon for good cause, and this actuates him in making these charges. It is further stated and upon the same excellent authority, that the complainant is a man utterly unworthy of credence or trust. In fact, it is alleged that he has been guilty of the crime of forgery. If these allegations are true it will be well for the Commissioners to proceed with caution in acting upon any complaint coming from such a source.

The inference seems to be that some time in his life the Old Roman must have called Mr. Foraker a "durned fool."—[Kansas City Times, (Ind).

Station A.

East Los Angeles now has a postal station which is creditable to the place. It was open last Thursday and merits a description. It is at 1030 Downey avenue in the Ela Block, in a room 20x100 feet.

About thirty feet from the front a handsome partition of varnished ash in light and dark, reaches across the room. In it are windows for money orders and stamps appropriately lettered on glass, a door to open to the back office, two hundred glass front lock boxes, two drops for letters and one for papers.

An upright desk in the front office is for the benefit of the public.

Behind the partitions are two desks, three distributing tables with pigeon holes, one table for papers, and a large and handsome safe made by the Wilshire Safe and Scale Company.

D. Y. Moody is the general manager, and the carriers are Charles A. Robb and Charles Hawthorn. Mail is received and sent three times daily.

Stamps, envelopes and postal cards can be purchased, letters or packages registered, United States money orders obtained, the same as in the city at the main office.

Building Rock.

EDITORS HERALD: A very fine large sandstone ledge exists about three miles north of Lang Station. It is of the character of the rock being used in the new City Hall in your city from Flagstaff, but of a more reddish color, and is pronounced by experts the finest building rock they ever saw. In my opinion this will prove a great thing for some company, also for Los Angeles city, as it is of immense quantity. Grindstones have been made of it, and it only becomes harder by use. It is no doubt the finest and cheapest, as well as most attractive in appearance, of any building ever seen in Los Angeles city. Any company financially solid can have an opportunity to take hold of it. The cost of getting it is comparatively nothing, being three miles from the railroad station and a down grade. Respectfully,

JNO. LANG.

To Political Sharps.

EDITORS HERALD: I will thankful if any Republican or Democrat will answer the following questions:

1. What are the three fundamental principles of Republicanism?

2. Define clearly between the principles of Free Trade and Protection.

I want to understand and get at the foundation of the so-called issue, but cannot get much information through the street-corner politicians. Yours, etc., A. B.

A Raise in Sugar.

Sugar has advanced 1¾ cents per pound during the past ten days, the biggest raise on record for many months. It is the first time for nearly a year since the price of Pacific Coast sugar has been higher than the quotation in New York, but such is now the case, there being ½ cent difference. It will hurt the canning trade a little as this business uses a vast quantity of sugar.

Grand Ball.

The Manhattan Club, an organization of young Democratic voters, will this evening give a grand ball at Turnverein Hall, for the uniform fund. At a meeting last evening the Committee on Arrangements reported that they had sold 554 tickets, so the ball will certainly be a financial as well as a social success. Meine Bros.' band will be in attendance. The best of order will prevail.

Anschlag's Case.

Fritz Anschlag appeared in Judge Cheney's Court again yesterday, and appointed C. C. Stephens as his attorney. Later on Mr. Crawford appeared and Stephens withdrew from the case. Further proceeding in this case were postponed until the appeal to the Supreme Court has been decided.

"June 25, 1888.

"Accept my congratulations. Would have taken it myself only the boys bungled the thing badly. Give the laboring men all the protection you can until I get back, and then I'll help you out. I shall continue my coaching tour with Andy Carnegie, and will spend some time at his castle before my return. Andy is a laboring man, and I happen to know that he has made as high as $5 a day out of the tariff. Some of the other laboring men in Andy's shops have not done quite so well, and I have been told that they have been 'locked out,' or something of the sort for several weeks past, and that a few of Pinkerton's persuaders are keeping the flies off of them during their vacation. If they were not protected against the pauper labor of Europe, I wonder what would become of the poor fellows?

The Tariff on Rod and Iron Manufacturers.

There is considerable feeling here on the part of the barb wire manufacturers against what they term a trust of rod manufacturers composed of four large concerns, headed by Washburn & Moen, the Cambrian iron company, the Joliet steel company and the Cleveland rolling-mill company to manufacture rods in this country and monopolize the barb wire industry by saving the $13.40 duty per ton and driving the barb wire manufacturers, who have the duty to pay, out of business. The barb wire manufacturers ask that the duty on rods be removed so that they can compete for the South American trade. They claim they can and do manufacture now cheaper than Europe does. This proposed trust, they allege, has lobbyists at Washington asking that the duty on rods be increased, so that they can more effectually build up their monopoly.—[Joliet, Ill., Special to the Chicago News.

THE REPUBLICANS.

Several Ward Caucuses Held Last Night.

ALL OF THE TICKETS SELECTED.

Which Faction is on Top?—Who Will be the Next Sheriff?—Incidents at the Meetings.

Last night was rather an exciting one for the Republicans, since the caucuses for the selection of delegates to be voted for to-day at the primaries were held. There were several candidates for nomination who thought their chances would be better for success if they could select the tickets to be put in the field by the caucuses, and these gentlemen with their aids were out working hard from seven o'clock last night until the last vote had been cast. It was generally conceded, however, that those whose tickets were defeated last night would not give up, and as a result it is certain that the tickets in the field to-day will be quite numerous and the counting upon the close of the polls laborious. Nothing of particular note took place in the First Ward, except that the fight seemed to be over the selection of those who would vote for some particular man for Sheriff. The chair was filled by Mr. Oscar Macy, and the following were placed in nomination: seventeen from the East Side and twenty from the West-East Side: Messrs. Wallace Stockwell, R. W. Pierce, D. G. Dexter, J. McGrau, H. Van Dusen, W. F. Poore, C. H. Anderson (colored), C. N. Earl, David Carr, D. Jones, J. W. Homer, F. Filderson, F. R. Willis, T. A. Garey, B. H. Ihms, Sherman Page and J. R. Conlee.

West Side: Allen Smith (colored), G. S. Robinson, C. Dodson, C. Maitland, C. A. Luckenbach, A. W. Patton, C. B. Woodhead, Jas Velsir, E. H. White, L. E. Moser, J. C. Murray, J. Willgrod, N. Valentia, P. Follis, G. S. Robinson, Mr. Naud, J. Cline, Mr. Sotello, Thos. Pearson (colored) and H. Sweeney.

Of these the following were found to have been selected: East Side: D. G. Dexter, C. N. Earl, W. F. Poor, T. A. Garey, C. H. Anderson (colored), F. R. Willis, John McGrau, David Carr, W. W. Stockwell and J. R. Conlee. West Side: A. W. Patton, C. A. Luckenbach, N. Sotello, Jno. Cline, Allen Smith (colored), C. Dodson, C. B. Woodhead, J. C. Murray, P. Follis, V. M. de Silke and Thos. Pearson (colored).

The caucus in the Second Ward which was held in Judge Cheney's Court-room, was an exciting affair, two tickets being in the field. C. E. Dailey was in the chair.

After the nomination of delegates, the ballots were taken up in the Court-room waste basket. As this was passed around the ballots poured in from all sides, some putting several in at once. It finally reached one man who dumped a hat full of ballots on top of the already well-filled basket. This was more than the opposition could stand and a new vote was taken, at which one hundred and eighty-eight ballots was collected. The following were the delegates selected: C. E. Day, G. R. Flint, F. A. Gibson, M. A. Hamburger, H. Johnson, R. Livingston, Chas. McFarland, G. P. McLain, H. H. Martin, R. Miller, O. Morgan, C. H. Clark, J. Manning, M. H. McNamara, F. McGregor, D. G. McGowan, C. F. Rutan, C. W. H. Nelson, S. B. Arguello, H. C. Register, E. F. Singletary, T. H. Ward, F. W. Wood, S. K. Adams, Robt. Black, Wm. Cummings, R. B. Carpenter, H. S. Clements.

Most of the names on the Merchants' Anti-Boss ticket were snowed under. The fight in this ward was principally between the forces of Martin Aguirre and J. M. Meredith, both candidates for nomination for Sheriff, and at one time a personal encounter seemed imminent. The Irish-American Republican candidates met with a cold reception in this ward, but they received more recognition in the Third.

The selections in the Third Ward were as follows: General J. R. Mansfield, Ralph Hoyt, B. W. Edelman, F. Gilmore, C. H. Gorham, Robert Owens, W. H. Bonsall, F. C. Smith, H. A. Barclay, F. W. Cherry, W. C. Thornton, W. H. De La Monte, P. H. Dorney, J. C. Ray, J. C. Byram, E. W. Jones, C. C. Connolly, W. G. Cochran, J. W. Haverstick, M. H. Shepard, J. McCarthy, J. H. Book and Col. H. H. Boyce.

The selection in the Fourth Ward was as follows: S. Cornell, J. Coleman, E. Powers, W. J. Foley, C. C. McComas, A. Montano, C. H. Humphreys, J. W. Davis, W. B. Walker, E. P. Sutherland, H. T. Payne, Jno. Lovell and Peter Tigg.

The selection in the Fifth Ward was as follows: J. M. Damron, W. F. Fitzgerald, J. Frankenfield, W. E. Dunn, A. Gottschalk, J. Haines, B. W. Lee, E. P. Johnson, A. N. Hamilton, J. Lewis, S. W. Luitweiler, J. A. Rogers, A. Waldheimer, J. W. Hinton, Dr. H. Sinsabaug, A. Caldwell, Dr. Cohn.

When the result of the caucuses became known each faction claimed a victory. The friends of Meridith claimed to to have all on the ticket in the Second Ward except seven, and Martin Aguirre thought he had eighteen delegates in the third. The Oro Fino Club it was said had gained a victory all around in the interest of Martin Aguirre and the friends of George Gard for Sheriff and Captain W. H. Seamans for Recorder thought that none of the other factions had much show. Others claimed that the tickets selected were in the main unpledged, and thought that the county would rule the Convention this year. The last indications on the street last night were that there will be about three tickets in each ward to-day, and there were hints that in case a clique seems to be ahead, a floating delegation will be passed around. The fight at the polls to-day is likely to be quite lively.

Santa Fe Officials Change Their Quarters.

SOME NEW APPOINTMENTS.

California In the Lead as Regards New Track Laid This Year.

The long expected transfer of Santa Fe officials into the Phillips Block took place yesterday. Mr. H. B. Wilkins, General Freight and Passenger Agent, accompanied by his clerical staff, arrived from San Diego and was followed by the officials from National City, including Mr. George Holteroff, Paymaster for the California Southern, all of whom moved in with their "horse, foot and artillery." Auditor H. B. Whitehead and his staff, from San Bernardino, also put in an appearance and were established in their upstairs quarters, altogether a clerical staff of about forty strong moving in. The offices at National City are practically deserted, much to the regret of the residents of that place, who do not like the change at all. All of the officials of the California roads of the Santa Fe are now located here with the exception of Mr. Dan McCool and his force who will probably put in an appearance on Wednesday next. The elevator is in running order and is situated just inside the passage to the right of the entrance to the main office. Considerable changes have been made in the ground floor arrangements, and a commodious private office has been boarded off for Mr. Wilkins, who will occupy the rear part of the building, the front being reserved for the ticket office and enquiry department. It is rumored that Mr. Williamson Dunn will remain in the city, and this news is greeted with joy by his many friends here.

NEW TRACK.

Over 3,300 Miles Already Laid This Year.

Track-laying reports show that the aggregate mileage laid during the first half of the present year is greater than has ever been reported in the same period with the exception of last year, when the record for the first half showed 3,754 miles laid, the total for the year reaching almost 13,000 miles. Returns to the Railway Age for the present year show that from January 1 to July 1,1888, a total of 3,320 miles was laid by 168 different lines in 36 States. This is only 300 miles less than the entire mileage for 1885, and only 500 miles short of the total new mileage for 1884. California leads the country this year in activity of new construction, almost 400 miles having already been laid on 25 different lines. The work in this State is being carried on almost entirely by the Southern Pacific and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe systems, the former especially being still very active in pushing out new branches, while the Atchison is at present mainly content in finishing up lines for some time in progress. When the Atchison company is ready to push a line to San Francisco, as it certainly intends to do ere long, it will add between 400 and 500 miles in this work.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved Medical Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies, for the liver stomach, blood, etc. We are also now using the Compound Oxygen treatment which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Over 80,000 cases treated during the past twenty-one years.

CATARRH.

The term Catarrh is applied to a peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts, which prevails to an alarming extent, and is productive of very serious consequences.

The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times. In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent, or muco-purulent, greenish-yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often by both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their whole head was in a state of rottenness, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fetid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward, his rest is frequently disurbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others, a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the soft palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with gluish tenacity. Its lodgement embarrasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, which gives rise to a constant and almost irresistible desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat, so as to eject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of catarrh, and proves as embarrassing to the one affected as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again, the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membrane in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are discharged by way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green tint. In some cases these incrustrations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produces serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts; not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled, on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time may destroy the bony structure of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities, and then putrifies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room; and there are others in which all the secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat and feverishness in the head and nose—a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fullness, heat, irritation, soreness, or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above and behind the soft palate.

Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temple, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbits, and occasionally pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted, and at times assumes an exceedingly fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and congested, causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable, stuffy sensation in the head, and occasioning violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky, or of a nasal character, displaying a sort of sniffing quality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the throat, and frequent attempts to clear the parts of phlegm, producing the sound "nem," more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fullness, or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently. Others, again, speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth or throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less, and becomes weak and irritable, the appetite is capricious, and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times fearful, timid, agitated and inclined to drowsiness and sleep, the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucuous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and in spite of the utmost care becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that a breath of wind upon the linings of the nose or throat, becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent and repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse, and involving a larger extent of surface than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, invading the throat, larnyx, trachea and bronchial tubes, until, encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, where but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the stomach, bowels, kidneys, etc.

By the employment of proper inhalations and Compound Oxygen treatment in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the larnyx and the nasal passages, for air will find its way into the remotest and intricate cavities, where it is utterly impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance from business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless, unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing can do with the same success.

The very best reference from those already cured.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Gossip About Events Interesting in Los Angeles.

It is never satisfactory news to a true lover of racing to hear that his favorite pastime has lost a good patron, and to Californians especially the announcement J. B. Haggin will, with the end of this season, sever all actual connection with the American turf, is a cause of deep regreet. Mr. Haggin's colors have this season met with extreemly bad luck, and I understand that this is the preliminary cause of his retirement. It is his intention to continue his breeding establishment and I sincerely hope that the produce of his magnificent stock farm will tend by their successes to mitigate their fruitless efforts on his own behalf. Mr. Haggin like Lord Falmouth on the English turf, has always been above reproach, and it may be like his illustrous confrère he will yet return to the scene of his triumphs.

The programme offered by the Sixth District Agricultural Association for their forthcoming meeting cannot be too highly praised. The amount offered in purses and stakes, nearly $14,000 in all, will insure the best horses in the State competing at our track, and the number of entries gives a promise of fields which must satisfy the most fastidious critic of the national sport. Then again, the fact that they have, with one exception, confined the events to running and trotting proper, without putting in as a drawing card such hybrid frauds as long distance contests, shows that they mean to combine business with pleasure, and are willing to sacrifice the prospect of large gate receipts to legitimate sport. Many of the horses which will compete have already arrived in the city, and to keep readers well informed as to their merits, I will, commencing next week, give daily accurate reports from the training quarters of the work done by the different competitors.

Another race which is exciting intense interest in sporting circles is the match between Del and Consuelo, to be decided at Agricultural Park on the 2d of next month. Del has of late made marked progress and improvement, and it would not surprise me in the least to see him turn the tables on his late conqueror. Mr. P. Dornalech is confident of his colt's ability to defeat the pride of Santa Barbara, and in order that no chance may be thrown away, has secured the services of one of the best lightweight jockeys in the State. There will be throngs of spectators to see the champion of Los Angeles uphold the honor of our county, and if we are to be beaten, they will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that everything possible had been done to ensure success.

It is rumored that the Emperor of Norfolk is not quite so bad as had been stated and may very possibly be seen out again before very long.

And speaking of Emperor of Norfolk, reminds me that Baldwin's luck, if such it can be called, has been greater than ever this season. This time last year he had about $50,000 to his credit in stake and purse winnings, the season's winning amounting to $103,900 or so. Up to date this year his winnings are a little over $61,000, within a small fraction of half of it being won on the Washington Park track. His great colt, the Emperor of Norfolk, is to be credited with about two-thirds of the amount, and there is no telling how much more he may win before the season closes.

An exchange says that outside of the social aspect of the turf, so singularly encouraging just now, there is a great deal in the character of the racing itself to elicit praise and commendation. Frauds there are at times, I suppose, and frauds there will be as long as human nature is what it is, and so long as speculation is a vital adjunct of racing, but the turf is not alone in outcroppings of that kind, while gambling on the turf is not a marker to the gambling in Wall street—the busy thoroughfare that moves the business of the country. But while there may be occasional manifestations of jobbing, I am fain to believe the turf is not as bad as painted by some, and that fair and honest racing—in the West, at least—is the rule, and not the exception, Wholesome and rigid rules and regulations have tended to bring about this condition, particularly when enforced by upright, competent and fearless judges. The regular judge question has virtually taken practical shape at the principal Western meetings, although without the formal authorization of the Turf Congress, and the result has been most satisfactory. I believe I have never seen less kicking, and less of rumors of jobbery, and, let us hope, less of jobbery itself, than during the present season. During the Chicago meeting, so singularly successful in every way, with nearly 700 horses on the ground, and all kinds and classes of owners on hand, there has hardly been a suggestion of fraudulent doings, and zealous and desperate riding has been the order every day and in every race.

The Denman Thompson troupe has a good deal of sporting blood distributed amongst its various members, and whilst their success theatrically is beyond my province, the havoc they created in the local pool rooms by backing their favorites in the Eastern races came under my personal notice. One enterprising comedian left the city some $2,800 richer for the success of his favorites, and whilst the others did not dip quite so deeply into the bookmakers' pockets, yet their winnings were quite considerable. Well, gentle sportsmen of Los Angeles, your own races are at hand, and my wish for you all is that you may go and do likewise. ANGLICE.

Naturalization.

Naturalization is the order of the day. It is the duty of every man wishing to owe allegiance to this Republic to become naturalized. Every effort is being made to induce intending citizens to become naturalized, and they should take advantage of the opportunity offered them to do so. Mr. Eugene Germain, Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, through his Secretary, has arranged for two sessions of the Superior Court, such sessions to be devoted exclusively to the work of naturalizing intending citizens. Judge Gardiner will convene a special session of his Court on Monday evening next. He will sit in Judge Hutton's court-room, in Temple Block, corner of Market and Spring streets, on that evening from 8 o'clock until 9. On Wednesday next Judge Hutton will hold a special evening session at the same place and same hours, for the same purpose. Persons desiring of becoming citizens should see that at least one of their witnesses can swear he has known the applicant at least five years, and that the applicant has resided in this State for one year.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Preparations for Their Reception in September.

Preparations, apropos of the coming to this city, in September next, of the Odd Fellows of the world, are being carried on with great vigor by resident members of this order. As stated in the columns of the HERALD, over 25,000 persons are expected here during the Grand World's Encampment of the Odd Fellows. To prepare for the reception, accomodation and entertainment of this vast concourse, special committees were nominated by the General Committee of Arrangements. These Committees are industriously at work. Secretary Van Dusen has charge of all these sub-committees. His offices are in those of T. H. Ward, Secretary of the Board of Trade. Much written matter has been formulated since the organization of the Committee of Arrangements, and much routine work has been accomplished under Mr. Van Dusen's supervision.

Local Odd Fellows will ask a donation of at least $25,000 from residents of Los Angeles and hereabouts to defray expenses incident to the Encampment. This amount, it is hoped, will be raised by private subscription. If not, a mass meeting of citizens will be called. Eugene Germain, Secretary Van Dusen and others intimately interested in the Encampment, report everything progressing nicely. Major E. L. Stern has gone to San Francisco on business connected with the matter.

Very Ill.

J. J. McMenomy, a volunteer and gallant fire laddie, one of the best known and most popular citizens, lies at the point of death at his residence. Jack will likely join the great majority in twenty-four hours. Readers of the HERALD will remember the accident to Mr. McMenomy, which probable will be attended with fatal results. He was out driving and his vehicle collided with another. Mr. McMenomy was thrown violently to the ground. He has been confined to his bed ever since. His physicians entertain but litte hope of Mr. McMenomy's recovery.

A Creditable Achievement in Life Insurance Business.

During the summer of 1884, L. G. Fouse, Esq., the well-known Actuary and President of the Fidelity Mutual Life Association, of Philadelphia, Pa., visited California on a pleasure trip, and becoming impressed with the business outlook for the State, established an agency for his company at Los Angeles. The First National Bank was made trustee for the reception of mortuary payments, and Dr. H. S. Orme was appointed Medical Examiner.

As an illustration of the way in which this company does its business, we may mention the following facts:

On September 19, 1884, Clarence W. Francis, of Los Angeles, was insured in the sum of $5,000. He died Woodland on the 25th of last May. The company received notice of the loss on the 11th of June, and on that day wrote to Mrs. Francis, enclosing blanks to be filled out with proof of death. The usual steps were taken, and the completed proofs reached the Philadelphia office on July 10th. On the following day a check for $5000 was forwarded to the present agent, Wm. Alrichs, Esq., who turned it over to Mrs. Francis on July 18th.

This is praiseworthy promptness, and has been gratefully acknowledged by the beneficiary.

The cost of the insurance, too, is worthy of note, for we are informed that the total expense during the three and a half years in which the policy was in force was only $284.75, or an average of about $81 per year. Under the legal reserve system the same insurance would have cost $117.75, an increase of $36.39 per annum.

Now, a company that can furnish insurance at such moderate rates and meet its death losses so promptly is certainly deserving of patronage, and we are not surprised to learn that Mr. Alrichs, who has a thorough knowledge of life insurance from having represented the same company in the East, is doing a large business.

Dr. Bo-San-Ko

In his new discovery for Consumption, succeeded in producing a medicine which is acknowledged by all to be simply marvelous. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste, perfectly harmless, and does not sicken. In all cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, and Pains in the Chest, it has given universal satisfaction. Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup is sold at 50 cents by C. H. Hance, 79 North Spring street.

SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT—

GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT—

ALLEN G. THURMAN, of Ohio.

To enforce frugality in public expenditures and abolish unnecessary taxation.

FOR CONGRESS, SIXTH DISTRICT—

BEEL B. TERRY, of Fresno.

THE indications are multiplying daily that Indiana is sure for Cleveland and Thurman. Such widespread resentments exist against the man in the Labor and Greenback ranks, and he is withal so unpopular in his own party, that the Democrats would almost seem to have a walk-over. Mr. John Paul Jones, a well known politician of that State, writes a letter to a friend in Los Angeles from which we have been permitted to make the following extracts. He says: "You ask me what we all think of Harrison's nomination. I believe, and I am in a position to judge pretty well, of the feeling in Indiana, both from personal observation and from what I hear from others, and I have no hesitation in saying that his nomination adds no strength to the ticket in Indiana. He will be as strong as the issue of Protection and no stronger. He has no personal following, and on the contrary has, in his own party, many enemies. If he gets this support at all it will be because their love of party is stronger than their hatred of Harrison. This kind of support is always like damning a man with faint praise. Aside from this, Harrison is very obnoxious to the workingmen, not only on account of his Chinese record, with which you are doubtless familiar by this time, but also on the position which he took during the great railroad strike in 1877. To add to his many other glorious elements of unpopularity, he has embittered the Greenback vote by repeated assaults on their principles for the past ten years. The only element of strength outside of his strict party vote he seems to possess, is Morton's money. Of course, it yet remains to be seen how far that can figure. Take it, however, all in all, I never have seen the State looking better than it does now. I believe that if the vote were taken to-day Cleveland would carry the State by twenty thousand, but, of course, we cannot expect such a result in November, though it will go ten thousand Democratic. I should think that Harrison's Chinese record would render his success in California problematical."

AS THE facts of the Oregon election are developed the position taken by this journal, that that result was brought about by the grossest bribery, is confirmed. Says the Stockton Mail:

The odium which attaches to vote-buying is very slight, it seems, up in Oregon. It is not near so grave a crime as horse-stealing. James Ripperton and Horace Gillner, who helped to dispense the sack of the "Thousand Defenders," and to increase the High-Tax majority by the purchase of votes, pleaded guilty in the United States District Court at Portland the other day and were fined $125 each and costs amounting to $50. On the same day a Judge of a State Court at Chicago sent a railroad official to the penitentiary for six years for attempting to bribe a juror. Which does the reader think is the greater crime? Or is there a perceivable distinction between them? We have never believed that Oregon High-Tax majority was obtained honestly. Nobody who credits the Oregonians with an average amount of common sense believes it.

In a close State with a sparse population like Oregon an election may be carried by such infamous methods, but there is sure to be a great reaction, and the effect in more enlightened and independent communities is not favorable to those who employ them. Shortly after the Oregon election a reputable clergyman of Portland, who was personally cognizant of these Republican frauds, felt obliged to denounce them from the pulpit. He was set upon in the public streets the next day by the man who had been elected District Attorney through their instrumentality and beaten in a most brutal manner. Oregon is a sort of American closed-borough, but there ought to be enough sense of decency in that Commonwealth to rebuke such tactics and leadership at the election next November. At the worst view for the Democrats, such a victory is robbed of all moral significance.

WHILE demonstrations, processions and other whoop-ups of the jubilant order are excellent of their kind, and form the exciting and pictorial part of a compaign, there is a labor of detail and routine which is never neglected by sagacious people who expect to win at the polls. The machinery for registering voters in Los Angeles county is in the hands of Republican officials. The County Clerk is the same Charles H. Dunsmoor who prostituted the functions of his office to partizan purposes two years ago, and whose abuse of his trust placed in office a number of persons who would not have been the choice of the people. The Assessor, who has co-ordinate authority with the County Clerk in all matters relating to registration, is a bitter Republican partizan, and may be relied upon to secure every advantage to his party. Two weeks from now, viz., on August 4th, the date expires on which newly naturalized citizens can be registered. It behooves the Democratic County Committee to act at once, and to demand of the County Clerk the appointment of Democratic deputies to see to it that all Democrats who are newly naturalized shall be registered. Mr. Dunsmoor can scarcely deny this application, and it ought to be made at once. As to the great mass of voters there is plenty of time, but as to this special class the time is becoming very short. Let us have a sufficient number of Democratic deputies to secure the polling of every Democratic vote. Dunsmoor and Mason will see to their own side of the house; let us see to ours, and instanter.

REPUBLICANS who really wish to keep au courant with the political drift, should by no means overlook the alliance between the Democrats and Greenbackers of Michigan, a note of which has appeared in our telegraphic columns. Michigan has become a close and doubtful State, and it is now more doubtful than ever since the possibility of enlisting Alger's millions is no more. The Democrats of Michigan are alert and progressive, embracing such magnificent political chiefs as Don. M. Dickinson, President Cleveland's Postmaster-General. The Greenbackers have always been exceptionally strong in Michigan, and there as elsewhere Harrison's vulnerable and offensive record on that question will be used against him, while Levi P. Morton's peculiarly objectionable record as one of the chiefs of the goldbugs will tend still further to cement the entente cordiale between the Greenbackers and the Democracy. In the old ante-war days, under the leadership of Lewis Cass, Michigan was a reliable Democratic State. Under the inspiration of the young, suave, able and potential Postmaster-General, with the young blood he has brought into the councils of the party, there is no earthly reason why she should not take her place in the roster of States which will vote for Cleveland and Thurman. The indications are all auspicious for such a result. One thing is certain, the days of assured Republican ascendancy in that Commonwealth have passed into the limbo of things lost on earth.

THE HERALD has from time to time drawn attention to the peculiar work of our Republican County Assessor Mason. In our previous comments we had regard mainly to the great injury done to this county by an over-assessment which the State Board of Equalization were themselves obliged to reduce, and through which our people have been obliged to send hundreds of thousands of dollars to the State Treasury at Sacramento, not a cent of which ever finds its way back here. That was a great, glaring injustice, from which all our people suffered. But that was by no means the only remarkable feature about Mr. Mason's assessment. He and his supporters made a great parade over the fairness of the work done by him, but the facts appear of record that he has shown the grossest favoritism in his assessments. In 1882 County Assessor Venable assessed one thousand acres belonging to G. F. Bixby for $12,500. In 1884 County Assessor Bilderrain assessed the same land for $16,165. In 1887-88, in the very heart of the "boom," Mr. Mason assessed this thousand acres for $8,460, only about seventy per cent. of what it was assessed for in 1882 and about fifty per cent. of its appraisement in 1884. This is the way this vigilant Republican Assessor protected the poor at the expense of the rich.

THE Senate, after a good deal of unnecessary delay, has at last seen fit to confirm Mr. Fuller as Chief Justice of the United States. The country is thus at last assured of a great jurist in the place made illustrious by Marshall, Taney and later lights. In addition to the possession of legal attainments of the first order, great general abilities and unblemished character, the new Chief Justice is in the prime of life, and will doubtless rival Marshall and Taney in the length of time he will grace the foremost place in the foremost legal tribunal in the world. The hanging up of this nomination for such an inordinately long time was probably owing to a desire on the part of the Republicans to risk the chances of the next Presidental election in the hope that the choice of a Republican President would bring about the appointment of one of their own partizan's as Waite's successor. Their reluctant confirmation of Fuller may be accepted as a tacit admission that it is not worth risking popular odium on such a very slender hope.

OUR esteemed contemporary, the Times, affects surprise that the HERALD should desire an investigation into the charges made against Chief of Police Cuddy, and intimates distrust of our sincerity. By all means let the investigation be thorough, and let it extend into the affairs of Mr. Cuddy's Republican predecessor. Our support of our present efficient Chief is based on our belief in his absolute official integrity, and the further belief that a very dirty conspiracy exists to ruin him. The people want the facts. We earnestly beg the Council to hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may. Every one concerned should be compelled to tell what he knows of the matter, from the Mayor and President of the Council, Humphreys, down to the denizens of Nigger Alley.

WE BEG to say to our esteemed contemporary, the Evening Express, that we think the expression characterizing Mr. Cleveland in its issue of day before yesterday, contained in a letter from its traveling editor, was unworthy of that gentleman. But then, when it was written, perhaps the influence of the car-load of California's products had not altogether disappeared. As to the President's claims to being a gentleman, we are afraid that they will have to be determined in a higher court than the columns of the Express. The brutal expression referred to is so at variance with the usually amiable style of the senior editor of the Express that we are inclined to look upon it as an interpolation of one of his wicked partners.

WE OCCASIONALLY see a reference to dissensions in the Democratic party of Los Angeles. There are no such dissensions. The party has never been so united or so harmonious as it is now. There is of course a good deal of surprise expressed at times that a municipal government elected by Democrats is not a unit on the city administration; but while this is unfortunate, and is deprecated by the immense mass of Democrats, the party was never less in a humor to allow of a rule-or-ruin policy by any man or set of men. At no time have there been so many Democrats hereabouts as to-day, and they are increasing in numbers hourly. No one who should attempt to run a personal side-show would have a corporal's guard of followers.

Political Points.

We want reduction of the tariff. We are taxed on every interest; blood is not only extracted from the larger veins of the body politic, but it is bound hand and foot and covered all over with gallinippers who are allowed to suck blood from every vein.—[General John A. Logan, Cong. Globe.

The New Jersey Unionist sent inquiries to representative labor leaders in that State as to their views on various matters of politics. Of thirty-two answers received, only two were "for protection as it is," while thirty were for "tariff revision of some sort."—[N. Y. World.

Mr. Morton's "noble philanthropy" is attracting great attention in Republican circles. His "philanthropy" in giving money to buy votes in Indiana got him the French mission and then the nomination for the Vice Presidency. A philanthropist seated on a corpulent barrel is the most attractive object in nature to lean Republicans who feel the need of fat.—[St. Louis Republic, (Dem.)

The Philadelphia Press, in commenting on a paragraph regarding Southern industrial development which appeared in the Nashville Banner, asks: "When is the break in the solid South coming?" When the sectional party at the North that has warred upon Southern civilization for twenty odd years shall have been swept out of existence you may look for that break—not before.—[Richmond Dispatch, (Dem.)

The platform is giving the "party" no end of trouble. It is such a flat contradiction of the one on which Blaine stood four years ago, which acknowledged the necessity of tariff revision, and of his famous Paris reply to President Cleveland's message, in which he took strong ground against free whisky, that the perplexed managers are at a loss to know how the "magnetic statesman" can take the stump for Harrison and free whisky. —Albany Argus, (Dem.)

Worthier, better and juster, it seems to my mind, would it be to give our people, the toiling masses, cheaper food, cheaper fuel, cheaper clothing and cheaper shelter—cheaper because released from the heavy and unneccessary burden of high-tariff taxes. I will put free sugar, free coal, free salt and free lumber against free whisky and free tobacco under all circumstances, and so will the great mass of the American people.—[Congressman Knute Nelson, Republican.

"The vote for Ben Harrison," it says, "has forever dissipated the Chinese bugaboo in American politics. The California brawlers declared that they could not accept Sherman or Allison on account of their pro-Chinese record. But they finally accepted General Ben Harrison, whose record on the treaty excluding the Chinese was as pronounced as that of Hawley of Connecticut. Most people in the Eastern and Middle States rather admire General Harrison for his courage in standing up in behalf of poor defenseless foreigners. We are gratified that the representatives of the Pacific States have acknowledged the absurdity of their efforts to prejudice the Pacific Slope against certain Senators. They give what in law is called a cognovit of the weakness of their previous position."—[Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

One result, at least, of Grover Cleveland's election to the Presidency has been of benefit to the country; it has brought about a better feeling between the North and South—between northern and southern men in all parts of the country. First, in the North, such bugbears as "paying the rebel war debt," "raiding the treasury," and so on, are forever done away with. Northern business men have seen that our southern citizens can be trusted to administer the duties of public office just as faithfully and capably as any one else. So far from squandering the so-called "treasury surplus" they have been foolishly zealous in trying to keep it close, and have spent less money in developing the resources and commerce of the country, by public improvements, and securing the sea-coast defenses, both North and South, than a Republican Administration would have spent.—[Express.

In 1860 our foreign tonnage lacked only one ship of being equal to Great Britain, and was growing at nearly double the English rate; so that when the Republicans went into power, March 4, 1861, it was the largest in the world. The war gave our commerce a black eye, but the Republican policy of non-intercourse, of making everything we want in our own country, of checking imports and confining them to goods not made here—to coffee, caoutchouc, camphor, cinchona and capsicum—could not be carried out if we had a large mercantile interest to combat. Protection therefore destroyed our shipping, and the Chicago platform reaffirms its hostility to commerce in its clause against free ships. Our mercantile marine was deliberately destroyed by the Republican party "to make this country independent of Europe." We cannot build ships because the tariff raises the cost so high that the ships will not pay interest on money invested.—[N. Y. World.

At 1 o'clock the upper lobbies and committee rooms were cleared and the occupants driven down stairs, so that the doors and windows of the Senate chamber might be opened without risking betrayal of the proceedings.

A BUNCOMBE RESOLUTION.

After the doors were opened, Sherman gave notice that he would ask the Senate to resume consideration of the Fisheries treaty to-morrow. Chandler thereupon offered the following resolution, which was laid over:

Resolved, That the power to make treaties and to appoint all the high public officers of the United States, being vested in the President and Senate jointly, the President has no right under his implied power of making the preliminary negotiations of treaties, to appoint, without the concurrence of the Senate, private citizens as plenipotentiaries; and to make and sign the proposed fishery treaty with Great Britain, dated February 15, 1888, was unwarranted by his constituents.

EVILS OF CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

Dolph called up the bill to prohibit the coming of Chinese laborers into the United States. He said this bill was intended to carry into effect the provisions of the pending treaty, and prevent the abuse of privileges granted to one class of Chinese to pass through the United States and to prevent the evasion of the treaty by the class of Chinese not permitted to come into the country. The unrestricted coming of Chinese laborers to our States was an unmixed evil which should be at once prohibited. All the Chinese laborers in the United States belonged to one of the Six Chinese Companies. They were virtually slaves. They did not regard our laws. They maintained their own government and enforced their own laws. The introduction of the Chinese into this country was the bringing together of extremes of civilization which could not blend. It was calculated to arouse the violent passions of the laboring masses, and tended to disorder which could neither be prevented nor properly punished.

STRADDLER MITCHELL.

Mitchell said the object of the bill was to enforce the provisions of the pending treaty. As an act of legislation to enforce those provisions he regarded it as the best possible bill that could be presented. He had no faith in the treaty itself. He never had had any faith in it. He believed it would be a failure in so far as it was to be considered as a means of prohibiting Chinese immigration. As amended by the Senate the treaty was at least no worse than the existing treaty, but he was unable to bring himself to the conclusion that it was any better. The truth was, it was a sham, a fraud, and a deception, and it would not meet the expectation of the President, Secretary of State, or of the members of the Senate who gave it their approval. This was the opinion of the leading journals of the Pacific Coast, and he sent to the Clerk's desk and had read editorials from California papers denouncing the treaty and criticising the administration which negotiated it. He had no faith in the treaty, but as he regarded the bill as the best which could be presented to carry out its provisions, he would vote for it.

INCONSISTENCY POINTED OUT.

Morgan could not understand why the gentleman would vote for a bill to carry into effect a treaty, which he said was a sham and a fraud. If he (Morgan) believed the treaty was a sham and a fraud, he would never give his vote to carry it into effect. He would vote to abrogate such a treaty. He deprecated very much the constant disposition which appeared here to disparge in the presence of mankind and the whole world, the honor and wisdom and integrity of the Executive. He had been here in an era in which Jingoism prevailed in the administration of this country to a very alarming extent (the moral effect of which we had not yet escaped from), and yet due faith had been given to the honesty of the administration in negotiating treaties. He thought it was best to return to that sense of feeling, to that sense of respect which the gentlemen owed their country, which would inform the world that we had negotiators to manage our foreign affairs, and statesmen which at least loved their own country. He did not think the gentleman had a right to cast slurs upon the Secretary of State.

A REMARKABLE BILL.

Mitchell said he had said this treaty was, in his judgment, a sham and a fraud, in so far as it was the means of accomplishing what was intended by the parties who made it. Would it be proper for him to ask the Senator whether he had favored the Senate amendments?

Morgan replied that he had voted for them.

Mitchell suggested that the Senator would admit that the effect of the first amendment would be to exclude from this country 36,500 Chinese who would be permitted to come in under the treaty as sent by the President.

Morgan replied that he thought the treaty as orginally sent to the Senate excluded these Chinese, but there had been some difference between grammarians about the meaning of the words. He had therefore voted for the amendments, but in the vote he gave he did not admit that there was any imperfections in the text of the treaty. He regarded the pending bill as a meagre bill. He said it was the first time to his knowledge that a bill had been brought into a legislative body for the purpose of carrying out a treaty which had not yet been ratified. Pending further debate the Senate adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

A New Yorker and a Texan Lock Horns.

The first business before the House this morning was the bill coming over from last night's session appropriating $250,000 to the aid of State homes for disabled volunteers.

Kilgore moved to amend by reducing the appropriation to $100,000. It was the duty of the municipal subdivisions of the Government aforesaid to care for their own paupers. The purpose of this bill was to make further aggression on the duties, rights and obligations of the States, and to impose on the general Government obligations which belonged to the States themselves.

Spinola, of New York, said if the gentleman from Texas lived in another clime he would understand why Northern Democrats should favor a measure of this kind, the object of which was to reduce the taxation of the people. The brave men who had taken the field to save the Union, the men who marched and bivouacked and fought for the flag of the country, the gentleman from Texas branded as paupers. He hurled the assertion back into the dirty throat from which it emanated.

Kilgore replied warmly and in the course of his remarks asserted that no man had more regard for the soldier than he. He had said it was the tendency of the Republican party to enlarge the powers of the Federal Government, and contract the powers of the State Government, and this measure was in the line of this policy. It was the policy of the Democratic party to resist this theory of the Republican party. Spinola then withdrew a portion of his remarks which he said were unparliamentary.

Kilgore's amendment was then rejected, and the Senate bill was passed.

Blanchard, of Louisiana, submitted the conference report on the River and Harbor bill, which was agreed to. The House then took a recess until 8 o'clock.

The House at the evening session passed twenty-four private pension bills and at 10:30 adjourned.

CAPITAL CULLINGS.

Yellow Fever in Florida—Fire at Port au Prince.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Marine Hospital Bureau is informed of a new case of yellow fever at Tampa, Fla., and of two new cases at Manatee, Fla. The case at Tampa is that of a refugee from Manatee.

Secretary Fairchild to-day received a telegram from the Governor of Florida asking the assistance of the Government in suppressing yellow fever, which, he says, threatens to become epidemic at Tampa and Manatee. The Secretary had a conference with Surgeon-General Hamilton, of the Marine Hospital Bureau, on the subject, and instructed him to render all possible assistance. He also informed the Governor of Florida by telegraph that the necessary steps would be taken by the proper Federal officers to aid the local authorities.

The Department of State has information concering fires at Port Au Prince, on the 4th and 7th instant, which destroyed about one-eighth of the town, including many of the public buildings. Great uneasiness prevails. Guards are posted at every corner and the streets are patroled. The French and English legations are guarded by French sailors from war vessels in the harbor. A detachment was offered by the French Minister for the protection of the American legation, but the offer was declined by our Minister.

DEATH OF E. P. ROE.

Sudden Demise of the Great and Popular Novelist.

CORNWALL-ON-THE-HUDSON, N. Y., July 20.—Rev. E. P. Roe, the novelist, suddenly expired at his home at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, last evening at about 10 o'clock, from neuralgia of the heart. He ate dinner with his family in the evening, and was bright and cheerful. After this he and his family and some visiting friends repaired to the library, where he read aloud some selections from Hawthorne. After reading about an hour he suddenly ceased and laid down the book with the remark: "That pain again; I shall have to stop reading." He left the room with a smile on his face. After reaching his bed the most intense paroxysms of pain occurred at short intervals for an hour, when he died, surrounded by all of his family.

THE LATEST FLOOD REPORTS.

Gold Fever in Michigan—Chicago Again Ahead in the Baseball Contests.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

ALBANY, N. Y., July 20.—The Legislature in extra session to-day abolished the use of machinery in the penal institutions of the State. Convicts will only be employed at hand work on goods required in the prison system. It also abolished the New York Acqueduct Commission which had been under investigation by the Senate, prompted by the charge that Governor Hill had mercenary relations with the Commission and certain contractors on the works. The creation of a new Commission of seven, upon which shall be three city officials, is delegated by the Legislature to Mayor Abram S. Hewitt.

FEARFUL FLOOD.

The Reports of Damages and Fatalities Increasing.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 20.—A personal visit to all the flood-stricken sections of the vicinity by an Associated Press reporter to-day showed, so far as it was possible to cover the field, that last night's accounts, obtained from hearsay, were more nearly correct than was to be expected, considering the excitement and confusion which prevailed, and the wide arena which suffered devastation, but, as was feared, the points not reached the night of the storm showed, if possible, a worse state of affairs than those accessible. The work of the fearful flood can be but feebly portrayed. The line of the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will have to be practically rebuilt from Elm Grove to the Pennsylvania State line. Six large and costly bridges were washed away. The track was lifted from the roadbed and twisted into all conceivable shapes for miles at a stretch. At some places it is impossible to discern where the roadbed had been, while, for miles, with the exception of only an occasional gap on high and solid ground, the bed is badly washed.

REVISED LIST OF FATALITIES

In and about this city foots up twenty-four. The impossibility of reaching the worst damaged localities can not be appreciated. Wheeling creek is still dangerously swollen and the roads washed away. Bridges are caved in; telephone and telegraph lines down. It is impossible to give details of the losses to-night, for the reason that those who suffered cannot estimate their own loss as yet, and every resident of the low grounds in the entire valley suffered damage ranging from $100 to $1,000, while even those on the hills lost valuable crops. The Baltimore and Ohio Company's loss will reach $350,000 at a low estimate. The county's loss in roads and bridges and school houses will be at least $60,000; the Wheeling Natural Gas Company $10,000, and the Natural Gas Company of West Virginia $5,500. These with minor losses will bring the total above three million dollars.

PITTSBURG REPORT.

PITTSBURG, July 20.—The great storm at Wheeling shut off all railroad communications with that place. The Baltimore & Ohio and Pan-Handle Railroads are both blocked and it will be some days before traffic is resumed. The damage on the Baltimore & Ohio road is mostly the washout of bridges and land slides. For a distance of fifteen miles, between West Alexandria and Wheeling, where the storm burst with fury, the track of the storm presents a scene of devastation. Trees lie across the track where they blew down, and frequent landslides impede the workmen who are trying to clear the tracks. In the stretch of territory which suffered the greatest damage, there are five bridges to be repaired, and the office in this city estimates the land slides to be cleared, at twenty.

STRUCK IT RICH.

Alleged Valuable Gold Discoveries In Michigan.

MARQUETTE, Mich., July 20. — The Mining Journal says: The richest gold rock ever taken from a mine east of the Rocky mountains was brought into Ishpeming this morning from Lake Superior, at the company's gold shaft seven miles northwest of there. The quality of the rock is equal to anything ever taken from this rich shaft, and the quantity surpasses anything ever known. Over three hundred pounds of rock was dislodged by a single blast and is now at the company's office in that city. The gold is so abundant that it sticks out of the rock, and the best chemists place the value of the 300 pounds of rock at $10,000, while there are others who will bet money that the assay of the rock will pan out a value of $60,000. This is the fifth remarkable rich discovery in this shaft, and many minor discoveries have not been made public. The quartz vein on which the shaft was sunk was discovered three years ago by Ishpeming men, but with the exception of exploding one charge of dynamite which exposed the rich pocket of gold-bearing quartz, nothing was done because the property was owned by the Lake Superior Iron Company, which would not sell or lease the property. Last summer the company put a few miners at work on the property and a test shaft was sunk about eighteen feet, at the bottom of which a small pocket was struck which produced gold-carrying rock which assayed $40,000 to the ton. All work was suspended then and nothing done until two months ago. Rich rock has been encountered all along, and the wonderful find of to-day has set the people wild. The shaft is now down twenty-two feet and is about eighteen feet wide at the bottom. The Michigan gold mine which adjoins this shaft has found rock in small quantities quite as rich. There is not a doubt that one of the greatest gold mines in the world has been found at Ishpeming.

M rble, of Worcester, Mass., was elected President; James H. Canfield, of Kansas, Secretary; E. L. Hewitt, of Illinois, Treasurer; Aaron Gove, of Colorado; First Vice-President; Ira G. Hoitt, of California, Second Vice-President.

The Secretary read letters from the Governor and State Assembly of Tennessee inviting the Association to meet next year at Nashville.

The subject for consideration to-day was "The Relation of the State to School Books and Appliances."

A PIONEER EDUCATOR.

During the session to-day the Chairman introduced to the audience Col. J. D. Stevenson, of California, who will soon be 90 years of age. He hired the first school teacher and did the first work in education in California. The venerable old gentleman was applauded for fully five minutes. He spoke clearly, amid frequent applause. One of his earliest acts, he said, was to open a school. He paid for the school room rent out of his own funds. When he first came to this city there were only thirty shelters, not houses, in it. His earliest recollections were of the foolish prejudices against free schools.

Irwin Shepard, of Union, Minn., was elected President of this department for the ensuing year; Miss Lucy M. Washbury, of San Jose, Vice President; Miss Ellen Williams, of Farmington, Mass., Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

T. H. Brand, of Madison, Wis., Chairman of the Committee on Nomination and Election of Officers, reported the following names to the Department of Musical Education: N. C. Stewart, Cleveland, President; Edgar Silver, Boston, Secretary. They were the old officers, and were retained on the recommendation of the committee, who said the results of the past year had been the most beneficial in the history of the department.

A number of papers were read, among them one by J. N. Elwood, of San Jose, on the subject of "How shall we best promote the teaching of music in public schools."

Miss Cora R. Finch, of San Jose, sang the Stacato Polka, in a most effective manner, and in response to presistent demands gave an exquisite rendition of Annie Laurie with other selections.

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT.

The feature of to-day's programme of the Department of Industrial Education was a paper by Prof. Woodard, of St. Louis, who eloquently elucidated the advantages to be derived from educating the youth of the land in the varied principles of mechanical art and industry.

ART DEPARTMENT.

In the Art Department, L. S. Thompson was elected President; Miss M. Louise Field, Secretary. A paper was read by Geo. H. Bartlett, principal of the Massachusetts Normal Art School, on "Free Industrial Evening Schools," which he thought were of great benefit and a necessity in manufacturing districts.

A. H. Munsell, of L'Ecole Des Beaux Arts, Paris, read a paper on "The Importance of High Aim in the Teaching of Drawing."

The Committee on Exhibits at Mechanics' Pavilion reported Massachusetts, five exhibits; California, Illinois and New York, two each; Pennsylvania, Michigan, Kansas, Oregon, Minnesota and Tennessee one each. The exhibit of Oakland, California, is mentioned as among the most logical and complete. Prominent among the exhibits stands that of the Massachussett's Normal Art School. Livermore College, California, has a very good map drawing exhibit, and the San Francisco schools also make excellent exhibits.

NEW TRUSTEES.

Among the members of the Board of Trustees chosen for the ensuing year were Prof. J. W. Anderson, of San Francisco; W. C. Davey, of Carson City, Nev.; Prof. E. B. McElroy, of Salem, Ogn.; H. R. Dawson, Washington, D. C.; W. C. M. Strauss, Tucson, Arix.; T. B. Gault, Tacoma, W. T.

PRIZES AWARDED.

The Committee on Awards passed upon the exhibits at the Pavilion this afternoon. For best industrial exhibit, the prize of $200 was awarded to the St. Louis Technical School and the diploma to the Women's Technical Institute and School of Designs, New York. The question of deciding upon the best general State exhibit became narrowed down to those of Missouri and Massachusetts, California being by previous arrangement out of the contest. After considerable discussion it was finally decided to award Missouri a prize of $300 and Massachusetts a prize of $200. Special diplomas were ordered given to Oregon and Illinois for excellent exhibits.

PLACE OF NEXT MEETING.

At the meeting of the newly-elected Board of Directors of the National Educational Association this evening, the motion carried that the matter of selecting the place of meeting for the next Convention be referred to a committee of three, consisting of the President, Secretary and Treasurer, with power to determine the time and place of the next meeting, with instructions to select the city of Nashville, Tennessee, providing all necessary arrangements can be made there for them.

THE REGISTRATION.

A. G. Kittredge, Secretary of the Certificate Committee, states that the total registration of members of the National Educational Association to date is 6,858; of that total, 2,826 are from the East and 4,032 from the Pacific Coast. Many of the teachers, however, have not yet registered.

A SAD OCCURRENCE.

Miss Lucy R. Johnson, one of the visiting school teachers, was taken sick last night, after returning from a visit through Chinatown, and died to-day. Her home is at Black River Falls, Wis., but for the past two years she had been teaching at Laramie, Wyo.

BAY CITY BREEZES.

Another Cut in Seamen's Wages. Railroad and Other News.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The Ship Owners' Association have made another reduction of $5 in the wages of coasting sailors. This is the second in a month. The last reduction was made on the 5th of July. To-day, at a largely attended meeting of the Association, it was unanimously decided, owing to the low rates of freight and scarcity of charters, to reduce the pay of sailors on coasting vessels from $35 to $30 to open ports, and from $30 to $25 to islands. The matter of reduction was almost unanimous, although the members did not pledge themselves to stand by the rates.

RAILROAD REPORTS.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company filed its annual report for 1887 with the State Railroad Commission to-day. The usual report of the company to the stockholders was made two months ago, and noticed at some length. The Southern Pacific Company also filed their report for 1887 with the State Commission to-day. Its number of stockholders is ninety-two and the amount of capital stock paid in is $89,027,770; its total gross liabilities consist of an unfunded debt of $12,019,623, while the net liabilities amount to $548,879. It pays interest on $164,635,216 bonds. Of the branch roads, so called, the earnings and expenses for the year were published recently.

Marysville Locals.

MARYSVILLE, June 20.—Thomas McNabb, the saloon-keeper, charged with the murder of James Sullivan, a laborer, in this city on the night of the 17th of last month, by knocking him down while Sullivan was intoxicated, has been found guilty of manslaughter, and will be sentenced Thursday next.

This afternoon a caboose and car loaded with wood, and attached to a freight train, were thrown from the track by a switch being open. They fell down the grade, and the wood car was completely demolished, and the caboose was badly broken. In the caboose was a young man, named Frank Calvert, who was taken out unconscious and badly injured about the face and spine. He is not expected to live.

Heavy Stage Robbery.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, July 20.—The San Luis Obispo and Templeton stage was robbed five miles south of the former place on the mountain last night at 9 o'clock. Six passengers were robbed and the mails and Wells-Fargo's bags and boxes broken into and probably $20,000 taken. The Sheriff and District Attorney with a posse are in pursuit of the robbers.

John Poole, an old resident of Redwood City, was severely injured by a water pipe, weighing a ton, falling on his right leg, crushing it so badly that amputation was necessary.

Edward B. Morris, a pioneer and proprietor of the Cosmopolitan Hotel at San Luis Obispo, died Friday evening. The deceased was a leading citizen and had been Sheriff of San Luis Obispo county.

At Oroville fifteen houses in the Chinese quarter of the town were destroyed by fire. The fire started in the Chinese Masonic hall, a two story frame building, and burned several houses on each side. One brick store, supposed to be fire proof, was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $10,000; insurance small.

The colony of Quakers at Newberg, Yamhill county, Ore., have made a contract with the narrow-gauge line of the Southern Pacific Company to carry 250,000 feet of oak and fir lumber every month for two years, to lead a schooner at Portland for another colony of Quakers at Encinitas, Los Angeles county, Cal.

A few days ago the San Diego Republican County Central Committee held a meeting and selected delegates to the State Convention. As there was dissatisfaction a call for another county convention is being circulated to meet next Wednesday and nominate another set of delegates. This will lead to a contest for seats when the State Convention meets.

"REVENGE."

A Seditious Document Captured by Inspector Bonfield.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Inspector Bonfield has in his possession copies of a secret circular, differing but little from the famous "Revenge" circular which called the Haymarket meeting together two years ago. The paper, which is termed The Revenge, calls for active steps on the part of the old-time Anarchists to avenge the execution of Spies, Parsons, Lingg, Engel and Fielden. It is believed the discovery of this sheet will lead to the arrest of prominent Anarchists not only in Chicago but all over the country. Inspector Bonfield said this afternoon that the paper has been started far the purpose of working up the passions of the Anarchists to such a point that they will not stop at anything to avenge what is termed the "bloodthirsty murder of the martyrs." Certain articles are printed in three languages, and it is urged that all true Anarchists take vigorous steps to intimidate the exponents of monopoly, and thus prevent a similar murder.

THE FRUIT MARKET.

Yesterday's Sales of California Fruits in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Seven cars of California fruit were auctioned here this morning and three additional cars will be disposed of this afternoon. The pears sold for Gregory Bros. & Company were all attractive and large, but the majority of boxes exhibited showed the fruit to be very ripe and only fit for immediate consumption. The pears of A. T. Hatch were in fine condition, being large, green and very attractive. Porter Bros.' pears were rather small but still quite green. The offerings of peaches were large and handsome and the fruit received was in prime condition, very few boxes showing signs of ripeness. The few plums sold were quite ripe, and grapes were in prime condition. The prices realized this morning were as follows. Purple Duane plums, boxes, $1.10 to $1.40; Quackenboss, $1.50; Columbia, $1.50; Magnum Bonum, $1.50; German prunes, crates, $1.50; gross, $1.80; early Crawford peaches, boxes, $1.15 to $1.65; Foster, $1.25 to $1.30; Clingstone, $1.30; Bernard, $1.25; Decker, $1.40; Fontainebleau grapes, crates, $1.60 to $1.80; Bartlett pears, boxes, $2.05 to $2.45; nectarines, crates, $1.05 to $1.30.

At the afternoon session the sale of plums brought from $1.15 to $1.45; prunes, $1.10 to $1.50; peaches, 90c. to $1.50; grapes, $1.35; pears, $2.10 to $2.40. The majority of pears sold in the afternoon were much riper than those this forenoon. Gregory Bros.' peaches, which sold for 90c. to $1, were very small and hard.

ENGLISH LAW-MAKERS.

A Commoner Suspended For a Breach of Privilege.

LONDON, July 20.—In the Commons to-day Lord Churchill asked the Speaker for permission to question Conybeare as to whether he was the author of a letter appearing in the Star, denouncing the conduct of the Speaker in supporting the Tory motion for the closure of debate on the second reading of the Bannbraigne bill. Conybeare admitted that he was the author of the letter. Churchill thereupon moved the suspension of Conybeare from the House during the remainder of the session. Gladstone deprecated the invective as wholly out of place in the discussion. The letter was distinctly a breach of privilege and he would therefore support Churchill's motion. Labouchere moved to substitute in the motion the words "breach of privilege" for the words "gross libel." Sexton said as the act seemed to be a breach of privilege when committed against Irish members, and as Irish members could obtain no redress for slander outside of the House, the best course they could adopt would be to leave the English members of Parliament to settle the dispute between themselves. Sexton's remarks were greeted with laughter and derisive cheers, during which he left the House. Smith held that Conybeare's letter was a direct libel upon the Speaker, and that the adoption of Lord Randolph Churchill's motion was necessary in order to maintain decorum in Parliament. The motion was adopted by a vote of 243 to 168.

An amendment was afterward adopted suspending Conybeare one month.

On Smith's proposing that Conybeare be suspended for one month all the Parnellites and most of the Liberals left the House as a protest against such action. Smith's proposal was adopted without dissension.

In an interview to-night Conybeare said he had been advised to withdraw his letter to the Star but that he had declined to do so. He would place himself in the hands of his constituents and would resign if they disapproved his conduct.

THE FATHERLAND.

Attitude of Germany on the Bulgarian Question.

BERLIN, July 20.—Prince Bismarck, in the course of a long interview prior to the departure of Count Shouvaloff for St. Petersburg, handed the Russian Ambassador a document expressing his views of the Bulgarian question. In it the Chancellor favors the maintenance of the treaty rights, at the same time taking into account Russia's legitimate claims.

The North German Gazette, referring to reports in the Paris papers to the effect that Emperor William's visit to St. Petersburg is a last effort to conciliate Russia, says: The German policy remains in uniformity with the Berlin treaty. The presence of Prince Ferdinand on the throne of Bulgaria has been, from the outset, recognized by Germany as a violation of that treaty. The meeting of the two Emperors will in no wise change the German attitude towards Prince Ferdinand.

The Guests of the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 20.—This morning Emperor William and Prince Henry laid wreaths on the tomb of the late Czar in the Church of Peter and Paul, in St. Petersburg. In the afternoon they visited the grandees residing in the vicinity of Peterhof, arriving at 7 P. M. with the Czar and Czarina at Keasnoe Zeelo, to attend "tattoo" at the military camp. Wreaths were also placed on the tomb of the late Czarina by Emperor William and Prince Henry. The wreaths were inscribed with the names of William and Henry. The foreign embassies and all of the private houses along the route to St. Petersburg were profusely decorated and the balconies were crowded with people.

EARL MARBLE.

The Forget-Me-Not.

When the heavens and the earth had been summoned into being and man had been called to taste the joys and glories of the Celestial Eden, every living thing was brought unto Adam, that it might inherit from him its befitting name; and flowers of every varied hue were among the lovely objects that his eye did rest upon. And as he named each of them after its form, or fragrance, or color, he added, "Be ye mindful of the name by which the image of your Maker hath called you." It was yet but a short time afterwards that a flowreret arrayed in the meek azure of the firmament spoke unto Adam, saying, "Lord, by what name didst thou call me? "Of a truth it shameth me that I did not heed it," and the first man answered and said, "Forget me not." Then the flowreret drooped its head and went and hid itself in the lovely shade beneath the bough that waveth over the murmuring brook. There it abideth, and when the gentle hand of friendship or the eager finger of love stoopeth to pluck it in its loveliness, it still doth whisper softly, "Forget me not."

DEATH AND DISASTER.

Terrible Explosion of a Steam Tugboat.

WHEELING AFTER THE DELUGE.

Flood Ravages in the Pan-Handle of West Virginia and Vicinity.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

LOUISVILLE, July 20.—The tugboat Convoy blew up, twenty-six miles above here this morning. Seven men were killed. The explosion of the steam pipe that supplied the engine from the boilers caused the catastrophe. Most of the men were asleep at the time. The victims were Wm. Page, Wm. Harrington, Herbert Jones, Wm. Bigley, Charles Luster, Geo, McCann, Wm. Kelly. All belong in Pittsburg or near-by Pennsylvania cities.

When the boat reached Westport everything according to the first mate's story, was running smoothly. When they were two miles above Westport suddenly there was an explosion, the boat becoming enveloped in steam, and the machinery stopped. Capt. Richardson hurriedly dressed, called the survivors about him and made preparations to land. After the boat had been towed ashore the Captain had proceeded to the after cabin, where the explosion had occured. Page laid near the door, blood rushing from his ears and mouth, and the flesh scalded off his body. McCann and Harrington were in their berths. The death of each must have been instantaneous, for they lay in the same position as when they retired. Jones was on the floor and barely alive. He was horribly burned and lived but fifteen minutes and died with his wife's name on his lips. Bigley was also still alive when found, but died in ten minutes. Luster was discovered outside of the cabin lying on his face. He was not dead and told them that he had run out there as soon as he could recover from the shock of the explosion. He was almost baked, his skin was parched, and little jets of blood stood out from the pores of his body. In two hours he was dead. Kelly was pulled out from under his bunk and was alive, but he was terribly burned. Charles Chambers, the only other man who slept in the cabin, was blown out of the door and had a miraculous escape. He was unscratched, as were also Mate Kerins, Pilot Reno and Engineer Carr. All others aboard perished. The officers of the boat can give no explanation of the accident, and claim the machinery was inspected last February and was then in excellent condition.

THE WHEELING FLOOD.

Terrible Loss of Human Life and Property.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 20.—At noon to-day the revised estimate of lives lost by the flood last night puts the number at least twenty-five. About fifteen bodies had been found. The money loss footed up $150,000. The greatest loss of life was along Wheeling creek and at Triadelphia. Search this morning resulted in the discovery of a number of bodies near the latter place. Most of them were found among the drift which collected in Elm Grove. The body of Wm Gaston, aged 60, a prominent and wealthy citizen, was among them. His wife's remains were found two miles below, hanging on a barbed wire fence. Chas. Caulbell, of the Wheeling News Letter, aged 30, was found among the drift wood. Mrs. Jane Fay and her two grown up daughters, Alice and Mary, were discovered a short distance below Triadelphia, and the bodies of two brothers named Gorman were found in a meadow, where they had been buried by the furious waves.

Later reports from Triadelphia show that the destruction by the flood was more appalling there than elsewhere. Fifteen families are homeless, and saved only what they had on. Half of the village, which had 600 inhabitants, was swept away, but all except those already named escaped to the hills. The storm extended sixteen miles east of West Alexander, Pa., and the scene along the way is one of desolation and inconceivable horror. Where the Triadelphia school house, a large building of six rooms, stood, the creek is now a raging flood, and not a vestige even of the foundation remains. The whole south half of the town has disappeared as clean as if it never existed. The Wheeling relief committee, which recently raised funds for the Bowlesburg sufferers, expended the balance for provisions and sent it to Triadelphia.

The Baltimore and Ohio, Pittsburg division, is practically destroyed for fifteen miles. The Western Union Telegraph Company lost forty miles of wire and most of the poles.

Reports are coming in from all parts of Ohio county indicating that the storm was more disastrous to life and property in the county than in this city. The loss of life in Wheeling is known to be ten, with a number reported missing. Caldwell Run, which passes through the Eighth Ward of the city, was the scene of the greatest havoc. Three houses were swept away and all the inmates drowned. They were Mrs. Barbara Stenzel ann son, Herman Stenzel; Alice and Annie Wingert, of Miltonsburg, Ohio, nieces of Mrs. Stenzel; John Homan and Mrs. Thomas Hawley and four children. Her husband was in the yard and was swept one hundred yards down the stream, but managed to reach the bank in safety. Only two bodies have been recovered—those of Alice Wingert and Mrs. Stenzel. Mrs. Johnson, a widow, aged 60 years, residing at Clinton, this county, died from fright at the havoc wrought by the flood. Among the drowned is the Sheriff of Marshall county. Two cemeteries were washed out, and coffins with bodies floated down the river.

The Anarchists.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Chleboun and Chopek furnished the required bonds of $5000 each, last evening, and have been released. Kronek, the arch-conspirator, is still in confinement, and will doubtless so remain. Inspector Bonfield says the case is complete with the arrests already made. One or two others may have known of the plot, but not to the extent that they would be convicted. Any further arrests will be for the purpose of holding witnesses. The Inspector denies the report of Chleboun's confession.

The disruption of the association of manufacturers of iron, steel and nails has actually commenced, and a member stated on Thursday it was only a question of time until the organization would cease to exist. Within twenty-four hours twelve firms had sent in their resignations, and every mail was increasing the list.

The Italian Chamber of Deputies, by a vote of 269 to 97, adopted the Communal Reform Bill, which gives to two million citizens the right to vote in local elections. The Chamber was then prorogued until November.

Fire broke out on Thursday on the Spanish steamer Asturiano, at Rouen, from New York, and caused a tremendous explosion, there being on board a cargo of 8,840 barrels of petroleum. Eight of the crew were killed.

The first steamer load of steel rails and other supplies for the Mexican Pacific, or McWood's railroad, has arrived at Port Altata. A portion will be discharged there and the remainder of it at Mazatlan, where construction begins.

A well authenticated report has reached Laredo of the disastrous wreck of a construction train on the Mexican National Railroad, at the Front, in which fifteen men were killed. A relief train was sent to the scene from Saltillo. No further particulars are as yet obtainable.

The retirement of Marshal Kuhn has caused a sensation at Vienna. The Emperor, in a letter to the Marshal, says: The necessity for the army being in perfect readiness for the field renders it imperative to appoint another to your post. Marshal Kuhn still enjoys full mental and physical vigor.

The leading newspapers and citizens of Sonora and Sinaloa, Mexico, are criticizing the American Consul at Port Mazatlan for refusing to hoist the stars and stripes over the American consulate on the Fourth of July, as is the usual custom. Mexican flags were unfurled in honor of the United States, but no flag floated over the consulate.

The Commons finished the new clauses of the Government bill Thursday evening. Conybeare tried to "talk out" the second reading of the Bann drainage bill, but closure was enforced and the bill passed on second reading. All the Parnellites, with the exception of Biggar, left the House in a body with many Radicals, and protest against the exclusion of debate. Labouchere intends to move a rejection of the Parnell Commission bill. It is now expected Parliament will adjourn August 11th, until autumn.

AUSTRALIAN CHINESE LAW.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 20.—The captain of the steamer Alameda, plying between this port and San Francisco, has agreed not to employ Chinese in the future, and the steamer is now unloading. The new act regarding Chinese immigration has received Royal assent. It prohibits the further naturalization of Chinese, and provides that all Chinese leaving the colony, except those who have been naturalized, shall on returning be subject to the Chinese act, which provides that Chinese immigrants must not exceed an average of one to every 200 tons burden of the vessels in which they arrive. The poll tax has been fixed at £100, and the penalty of the evasion of the tax at £50. No Chinaman shall be allowed to engage in mining without the authority of a number of miners. The act does not affect Chinese who have been British subjects.

MANITOBA MATTERS.

WINNIPEG, July 20.—Premier Greenway and Messrs. Martin and McNaught, the latter solicitor for the Northern Pacific, left for New York yesterday, via St. Paul. Greenway expressed confidence before leaving that arrangements would be effected with Mr. Oakes, whereby the negotiations now going on with the Northern Pacific will be completed, and the railway extensions already outlined will be secured. Operations will probably be commenced in ten days.

Local volunteer military officers have orders from General Middleton and Sir Adolphe Caron, Minister of Militia, to hold themselves and their commands in readiness to proceed on short notice to British Columbia, and thence northward to the Skeena River to assist in quelling the Indian uprising there. Reports to the Hudson Bay Governor indicate rather a serious state of affairs, and lead to the belief that several warlike tribes will join the insurrection. Full intelligence is expected within a day or two by the Hudson Bay Company.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE.

DUBLIN, July 20.—Dr. James Ridley, the medical officer in attendance at Tallamore jail during Mr. Mandeville's incarceration there, and who was subpœnaed to appear at the inquest at Mitchellstown on Mandeville's death, has committed suicide. Ridley had been present at the inquest daily, waiting to be called to the witness stand. The evidence given to show that Mandeville was subjected to ill usage while in the jail seemed to prey upon his mind. His suicide confirms the popular belief that Mandeville was treated with extreme cruelty by the prison officials.

MEETING OF THE EMPERORS.

CRONSTADT, July 20.—On the arrival of the Emperor William and the German fleet the Imperial yachts approached each other between double lines of Russian and German warships, bedecked with bunting. The weather was fine and the scene was imposing. The German Imperial party went aboard the Russian yacht Alexandria, which proceded to Peterhoff Palace. The Czarina, in a handsome pavilion erected on the quay of the military harbor, cordially greeted Emperor William. The latter inspected the Guard of Honor, the band in the meantime playing the Prussian national anthem. The party then proceeded to the palace. The route was lined with troops.

Emperor William, accompanied by Prince Henry, Count Herbert Bismarck and suite, sailed from Petershof for this city at 10 o'clock.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 20.—During the voyage of the Emperor and Czar from Cronstadt to Peterhoff last evening Emperor William conversed at length with M. De Giers, while the Czar talked with Count Herbert Bismarck, the German Minister of Foreign Affairs. Afterward the two Emperors had a long talk together. No toasts were offered at the state dinner given in honor of Emperor William at Peterhoff. Emperor William afterward went for a drive in company with the Czarina and Duke and Duchess Vlademar.

The whole Russian press are convinced that the meeting of the Emperors will inaugurate a new era of peace, and feel hopeful that Russian interests will now be considered. The Novoe Vremyha warmly welcomes the Emperor's visit and congratulates Germany upon the success of her efforts to become a maritime power. It hopes the former relations between the two Empires will be restered.

An official announcement of the advance by the other companies will be made in a day or two.

BRITISH CABLES.

LONDON, July 20.—The semi-annual meeting of the Direct Cable Company was held to-day. John Pender presided. He said the revenue during the past six months had decreased by £6,664 as compared with the corresponding period last year. This was due to lower rates. Negotiations have been in progress between competing companies, and resulted in agreement to establish shilling rates which would go into effect August 15. There would be no pool between the companies. The Commercial Company had only come into the arrangement to enable the rate to be raised.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The stock market relapsed into dullness and stagnation to-day. The traders had the market almost entirely to themselves and the fluctuations were confined to the usual narrow range when such a condition prevails.

Government bonds were dull and steady.

The petroleum market opened firm at 83c. and, after the first sales, became heavy and sagged off to 82c. An advance then set in which carried the price up to 84⅝c., when the market reacted and closed firm at 84c.

Dates.—Trains leave Los Angeles on Thursdays and San Francisco on Fridays, meeting at Sacramento Friday afternoon. Dates are as follows: From Los Angeles—July 19th; Aug. 2d, 16th, 30th; Sept. 13th, 27th; and day following from San Francisco, Sacramento, Tulare, Fresno, Merced, Lathrop, San Jose, Stockton, Davis, Marysville, Colfax and Reno.

First class these excursions undoubtedly are in every respect, as no objectionable people are received, and each party is in charge of Burlington agents through to Chicago.

Free sleeping cars, properly provided with curtains, mattresses, blankets, etc. No extra charge for this, or any other service.

Rates, $35.00 is the price of a ticket from Los Angeles, San Francisco and most California stations to any Missouri river point, and only slightly more to points further east.

Scenery by daylight is a great feature, as these excursions will stop twenty-four hours in Salt Lake, and go by daylight through the Black Cañon or the Gunnison, across the Continental Divide, through the famous Marshall Pass, thence down the valley of the Arkansaw through the Grand Cañon of the Royal Gorge.

Further particulars are contained in Burlington route excursion folder, to be had at any ticket offices of the Southern Pacific and other railways, and at Burlington route offices below.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

The Hemet Land Company, principal place of business, Baker Block, room 28, Los Angeles California.

Whereas, an assessment of one dollar per share on the assessable capital stock of this company was duly levied on the fourth day of May, 1888, and, whereas, the publication of the notice of such assessment, and of the time when it would be payable and when it became delinquent, and the date of the sale of delinquent stock, was not properly made, and there was a substantial error in the course of the proceedings for the collection of the same, whereby all the proceedings, except the levy of the assessment, became void; and, whereas, the Board of Directors made an order making the said assessment payable to E. F. Spence, the Treasurer of the Company, at the First National Bank of Los Angeles, at Los Angeles city, on or before the 6th day of August, 1888, and also fixing the 15th day of August, 1888, as the day on which all assessments unpaid should become delinquent, and the 5th day of September, 1888, as the day of sale of delinquent stock. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Directors held on the 4th day of May, 1888, an assessment of one dollar per share was levied upon the assessable capital stock of the corporation, and said assessment is payable on or before the 6th day of August, 1888, to E. F. Spence, the Treasurer of the Company, at the First National Bank of Los Angeles, at Los Angeles city, State of California. AMUSEMENTS.

The Last of Miss Fanny Davenport at the Grand.

Fanny Davenport in La Tosca drew a full house last night at the Grand. To-day is the last of Miss Davenport's season in Los Angeles. For the matinee Fedora is underscored, and the closing performance of the evening will be the Tosca. The sales for both occasions are very large.

Miss Evans' Company.

Maud Muller was produced at the Academy of Music last night by Miss Lizzie Evans and her company to a not very large but appreciative house. The piece went off smoothly and is an entertaining exposition of American comedy. It will be produced at the matinee to-day and at the closing performance by the troupe to-night.

The Rentz-Santley's.

To-morrow night the stage of the Academy of Music will be occupied by the Rentz-Santley troupe of specialty artistes. The combination is said to be a good one, and those who have witnessed the celebrated performances of "Sara," the high-kicker, will doubtless gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing them again. The engagement lasts throughout the week.

The Troubadours.

Salsbury's Troubadours will be the attraction at the Grand next week. The Humming Bird will be produced. The play opens with a scene in Central Park, near the Shakespeare statue. "Augustus Honeymoon," just married, has had a slight unpleasantness with his wife, on account of being caught kissing the lady's maid, pretty "Sally Styles." This leads him to look for other female society, and he inserts a personal in the Herald, signed "Humming Bird," which is answered by a person giving the name "Mignonette," and a meeting is arranged for at night in Central Park. "Honeymoon" goes there to keep the engagement with fear and trembling. He is accompanied by "Robert Brackett," an artist. At the last moment "Honeymoon" changes his mind and seeks to hide himself. "Mr. Joseph Brass" has also advertised for the acquaintance of a rich young lady. He appears on the scene. "Sally Styles," ambitious of becoming an actress, is his correspondent. They recognize each other as old acquaintances. "Matilda Fullalove," a young widow, also turns up, instigated by "Mrs. Honeymoon," to answer her husband's advertisement. This leads to a complicated and humorous situation. The second act, owing to misunderstandings engendered in the first act, is filled with comical confusion, and some ingenuity is required to bring matters to a peaceful conclusion.

GEN. HARRISON AND LABOR.

They Don't Seem to Hitch Well Together in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS June 28.—Go where you will among laboring men of any trade in Indianapolis and you will find the utmost antipathy to General Harrison, It is a tradition quoted often and with great force that in a speech at the time of the strikes in 1877 he said that $1 a day was wages enough for any laboring man. It is said the speech was delivered at the Union Depot, where the railroad men out of work congregated during the strike. Yesterday I asked General Harrison what truth there was in the story. He listened, and then began walking up and down the hall of his house in meditative fashion.

"At the Union Depot?" he repeated, in a thoughtful tone. "Why, I never delivered a speech at the Union Depot in my life." Then remembering, as it seemed, the anonymous letter he had received advising him not to be interviewed, he started up suddenly, saying in a louder and more forcible tone, "But I don't propose to say anything at all to such charges as that, nor to waste time denying that I am an idiot. It is not my intention to carry on a campaign of denial. I shall not stop to refute every lying story regarding me. There is too much serious business on hand."

During the strikes General Harrison was captain of a militia company called out against the strikers, and the memory of that is another thorn in labor's side Connection with the militia is a bad card among the Knights of Labor in Indiana for any man who is running for office, and there is a record of more than one candidate's defeat in local elections on that very ground. The Indianapolis Sentinel, which will make a spirited fight against General Harrison, makes the following paragraph, printed during the strikes, the keynote of an attack upon him:

Four companies of volunteers under the respective commands of Gen. Benj. Harrison, Col. N. R. Ruckle, Major J. J. Palmer and Capt. Harry Adams, marched into camp at the United States Arsenal this morning. They are armed with the new breech-loading Springfield rifle—a most formidable and efficient weapon.

A cartoon printed to-day represents Harrison in military uniform and musket in hand at the head of a squad of armed men advancing upon strikers.

Gen. Harrison addressed them and said something which incensed them greatly and almost caused open rupture. What it was, none of the daily papers printed at that time show, but the files of a labor publication edited by Col. Light are being deligently sought.

To-day I visited ex Senator McDonald, who says he well remembers the meeting to which reference was made.

"There was a concourse of laboring men," he said, "accompanying the strikers' committee, so that the hall was pretty well filled. The general attitude we took towards the strikers was that while they had a right not to work if they didn't want to, they had no right to interfere with others who did want to work, and while we would do all we could to secure them an advance of wages, any effort on their part to interfere with the rights of property would be resisted by the committee. Gen. Harrison did some talking. I was engaged in conversation with another man at the moment and don't know what it was he said, but something offended them terribly and they started to go out, but their Chairman cooled them down and peace was restored. What it was that was said I didn't know, or, at least after this length of time, can't remember.

Senator McDonald's conversation drifted from the strikers to the ticket and the present prospects. "Harrison is a good man," he said. "He is certainly a representative Republican, but he can't carry Indiana. Here's the way I figure it." The Senator drew out a slip of paper on which he had been making some computations. "There are about 500,000 votes in the State, 240,000 Democrats and 235,000 Republicans and 25,000 of what may be called a floating vote, made up of Labor, Greenback and Prohibition.

"Ten thousand of these are Greenbackers, against whom Mr. Harrison is pronounced. One of them said to me to-day: 'Any man but Harrison. He called us idiots and said the number of asylums ought to be increased to accommodate us.' That is a fair index of the feeling of the Greenbackers towards Harrison. Of the 10,000 Greenback votes I am positive he cannot get over 1000. Of the 25,000 floating votes he must get 5000 more than we do to beat us, and I don't think he can do it."

The Labor Signal, the workingmen's organ in this State, will print to-morrow in its editorial columns the following:

"The men who made up the Chicago Convention appear to have but little regard for the wishes of organized labor. The nomination of Mr. Harrison was a genuine surprise to the organized workingmen of this State, because their attitude towards that gentleman is well understood, and it did not seem possible that a convention of sane men would invite conflict with a large number of voters in an extremely doubtful State by naming a candidate so obnoxious.

"The readers of this paper will remember the opposition Mr. Harrison's candidacy for the Senate aroused two years ago among the labor organizations, It found expression in scores of resolutions adopted by assemblies and unions, many of which were published in the Signal at the time.

"This paper opposed Mr. Harrison's election to the Senate for reasons that would prevent it from supporting him now. His public record, in our judgment, has not been such as to commend him to the favorable consideration of the people this paper represents. Hundreds of letters received from representative workingmen in this and other States, indorsing the Signal's position and breathing intense enmity to Mr. Harrison, is convincing proof that our position is correct, at least from the labor standpoint.

"Organized labor will decide the Presidential contest this year, and it is almost solidly arrayed against Gen. Harrison. In our judgment Mr. Harrison's defeat is a foregone conclusion.

"A second source of weakness to the Chicago ticket is Levi P. Morton, the Wall street banker. It looks as if Senator Ingalls' advice to the Kansas delegation had been carried out to the letter."—[New York World.

A CANDID CONFESSION.

For several years I suffered from Dyspepsia and Kidney Complaint, the latter being so severe at times that I could scarcely attend to my work. My appetite was poor and I was much emaciated, but through the free use of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla my appetite and digestion improved 'till my health was perfectly restored.

To the Public.

The Bituminous Lime Rock Paving and Improvement Company take this opportunity of informing the citizens and property owners of this city that the pavement laid on Main street between First and Third streets is not Bituminous Lime Rock, but is an artificial mixture and not laid by the company. We make this announcement for the purpose of disabusing the minds of those who entertain the belief that this pavement was laid by this company and are disposed to criticise our material as being soft and not suitable for the streets of this city. The only Bituminous Lime Rock Pavement here was laid by this company, and extends on Main street from south line of Third to Ninth street, and on Spring street from Temple to Ninth streets. Bituminous Lime Rock does not become soft and mushy under the heat of the sun, but always remains firm and elastic. We have already laid on the streets of this city about five hundred thousand square feet of this pavement to which we take pleasure in inviting inspection. Very Respectfully yours,

BITUMINOUS LIME ROCK PAVING AND IMPROVEMENT CO.
